I'm sharing with you a project I actually started in June of 2018 - a paper mache sitting frog. I was originally inspired by a picture of a yoga frog for sale in a popular catalog. Back then when I was working on making the frog - when it was time to apply the paper mache, I just lost interest. So I picked the frog frame up and placed it on a table in my craft room and it sat there for months ...

Draw and cut four frog foot shapes out of green paper. Start with V-shapes, with the pointed ends being the bottom. Give each foot 3 to 4 fingers. Make the back feet a little bigger than the front feet. If you don't have any green paper, you can color a sheet of plain paper with markers or paint, and use that instead. 2. Glue the feet to the bottom of the frog. Use liquid glue or a glue stick ...
