Chalk up another win for Tessa Bailey. Indecent Exposure is a really great addition to her library. As an enthusiastic consumer of romance, I look for something different and captivating and special, and Tessa never fails to deliver. Her voice is at times fun, other times heartbreaking, but always real and authentic. The balance she achieves in Indecent Exposure is perfect.

Tessa Bailey returns to her Academy series with a bang in Indecent Exposure, which features a charming police trainee who can't resist his firearms instructor's Irish lilt. Jack Garrett is on his way to becoming a police officer. It's not out of duty or family history; he's just looking for a little job security. But the charming playboy finds himself slightly over his head when he realizes the woman he had a hot make-out session with the night before is now his new firearms teacher.
